

AMUNDI FUNDS EURO HIGH YIELD BOND

MONTHLY REPORT

31/03/2025

BOND ■

1. This is a bond fund.
2. Investing in this fund may expose investors to interest rate, credit, prepayment and exchange risks. The use of financial derivative instruments for hedging and efficient portfolio management purposes, especially credit derivatives, may lead to exposure to credit risk of the issuer. The fund involves risks associated with currency fluctuations, investing in smaller capital markets, limited liquidity, price volatility and restrictions on foreign investment. It may also associate with the economic risks of high inflation and interest rates, large external debt and political and social uncertainties.
3. The investment focus of the fund might give rise to increased risk over more diversified funds.
4. For distribution class, Amundi Funds may at its discretion determine to pay dividends out of income or capital of the fund. In addition, Amundi Funds may at its discretion pay dividends out of gross income while charging / paying all or part of the fund's fees and expenses to the capital of the fund, resulting in an increase in distributable income for the payment of dividends by the fund, in which case, the fund is effectively paying dividends out of capital. Payment of dividends out of capital amounts to a return or withdrawal of part of an investor's original investment or from any capital gains attributable to that original investment. Such distributions may result in an immediate reduction in the net asset value per share of the fund.
5. The value of the fund can be extremely volatile and could go down substantially within a short period of time. It is possible that your investment value could suffer substantial loss.
6. The investment decision is yours, but you should not invest in the product unless the intermediary who sells it to you has advised you that the product is suitable for you and explained why including how buying it would be consistent with your investment objective.
