How did the Fund perform last year and what affected the Fund performance?

- For the fiscal year ended July 31, 2024, the Fund's Class Y shares at NAV returned 6.14%. For the same period, the Bloomberg U.S. Aggregate Bond Index (the "Index") returned 5.10%.
- The Fund's benchmark relative performance benefited from allocations to commercial mortgage-backed securities, non-agency mortgage-backed securities, asset backed securities and to the financial sector, and a significant Fund underweight to U.S. Treasuries relative to the Index.
- Security selection in the financials and industrials sectors and in agency mortgage-backed securities contributed to the Fund's benchmark relative performance.
- The Fund's average duration position of 6.8 years was long relative to the Index duration by 0.7 years, which detracted from the Fund's benchmark relative performance, as yields moved higher during the first three months of the period and, again, during the first quarter of 2024.
- The Fund's underweight exposure to utilities relative to the Index modestly detracted from the Fund's benchmark relative performance.

Material Fund Changes

Amundi Asset Management US, Inc. (the “Adviser”), the Fund’s investment adviser, is currently an indirect, wholly-owned subsidiary of Amundi. On July 9, 2024, Amundi announced that it had entered into a definitive agreement with Victory Capital Holdings, Inc. (“Victory Capital”) to combine the Adviser with Victory Capital, and for Amundi to become a strategic shareholder of Victory Capital (the “Transaction”). Victory Capital is headquartered in San Antonio, Texas. The closing of the Transaction is subject to certain regulatory approvals and other conditions. There is no assurance that the Transaction will close.

The closing of the Transaction would cause the Fund’s current investment advisory agreement with the Adviser to terminate. Under the terms of the Transaction, the Fund’s Board of Trustees will be asked to approve a reorganization of the Fund into a corresponding, newly established Victory Fund advised by Victory Capital Management Inc., an affiliate of Victory Capital. The proposed reorganization of the Fund would be sought in connection with the closing of the Transaction. If approved by the Board, the proposal to reorganize the Fund will be submitted to the shareholders of the Fund for their approval. There is no assurance that the Board or the shareholders of the Fund will approve the proposal to reorganize the Fund.
